By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Apprehending all Persons going to or from France, and also for the Taking and Apprehending of all Deserters from Her Majesty's Service in the Army Abroad.

ANNE R.

WHereas by an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Our late Royal Brother King William the Third, It is Enacted, That if any of His said Majesties Subjects, who had at any time since the Eleventh Day of December, One thousand six hundred eighty eight, Voluntarily gone into France or any of the French Kings Dominions in Europe, without Licence from His said late Majesty, or Our late Royal Sister, Queen Mary, or at any time, during the late War with France, bore Arms in the Service of the French King, either by Sea or Land, should at any time after the Fourteenth Day of January, One thousand six hundred ninety seven, Return into this Kingdom of England, or any other His said late Majesties Dominions, without Licence under the Privy Seal, every Person, so Offending, should (being Lawfully Convicted thereof) be Taken, Deemed and Adjudged to be Guilty of High Treason, and should Suffer and Forfeit as in Cases of High Treason.

And whereas We are Informed, That notwithstanding the said Act, and that We are now actually Engaged in War against France, divers of Our Subjects, who by the said Act are Prohibited to Return to any of Our Dominions, without Our Licence under Our Privy Seal first Obtained, do privately Return to this Our Realm, and others of Our Subjects do Endeavour to Transport themselves from this Our Realm into the Dominions of the French King, whereby a Correspondence is and may be Maintained, and Carried on with Our Enemies, to the Prejudice of Us and Our Kingdoms: We have therefore Thought fit, and do hereby, (with the Advice of Our Privy Council) Strictly Prohibit and Forbid all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, being Our Natural Born Subjects, from Returning into Our Dominions contrary to the said Act, and from going to France or any other the Dominions of the French King, during this present War.

And whereas We are Informed, That divers Soldiers and others, who have received Our Pay, and been actually Employed in Our Service in Our Army abroad, have Departed from their Duty, and Deserted Our said Service therein, and Secretly Returned into this Our Kingdom of England, to the Dishonour of their Country, and Our great Disservice in this time of Publick Danger: We do hereby therefore Charge and Command all, and singular Our Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, Headboroughs, and other Our Officers, Ministers and Subjects whatsoever, within this Realm, to make Search for, and use their utmost Endeavours to Discover, Take and Apprehend all, and every Person and Persons, Our Natural Born Subjects, who have or shall Return into this Our Kingdom contrary to the said Act; and also who shall Voluntarily Go or Embark in any Ship or Vessel, with an intent to go into any of the Dominions of the French King, without Our Royal Licence first Obtained; and also all, and every such Soldier and Soldiers, who having been engaged in Our Service in Our Army abroad, and have Deserted or shall Desert from such Our Service, and shall be found in this Our Kingdom; and such of the Offenders as aforesaid, as shall be so Apprehended to carry before the next or some other Justice of the Peace, where they shall be so Apprehended, who is hereby Required to Commit them to the Common Goal of the County, where they shall be so Apprehended, there to remain until they shall be thence Delivered by due course of Law; and forthwith to Certifie the Names of the Persons so Apprehended and Committed, with their particular Cases, and by whom Apprehended, to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, that Care may be taken for their speedy Prosecution accordingly.

And We do hereby Promise and Declare, That whosoever shall, during this present War, Discover and Apprehend any Person or Persons, who shall return from France contrary to the said Act, or who shall go to, or Embark in any Ship or Vessel with intent to go to any of the French Kings Dominions, and shall bring such Person and Persons, so Taken and Apprehended before the next, or some other Justice of the Peace, in order to their being Committed and Proceeded against according to Law, shall for every such Person so Taken and Apprehended and brought before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, Receive as a Reward the Sum of Forty Pounds of Lawful Money of England, which Our High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Our Treasury for the time being, is and are hereby Directed to Pay according; and for the Doing thereof, this Our Royal Proclamation shall be a sufficient Warrant without any further Direction in that behalf.

And We do hereby further Direct and Require all Our Officers aforesaid, that they do cause every Person coming into this Our Kingdom, from the French or Spanish Dominions, during this present War, to appear before one of Our Justices of the Peace, to be Examined concerning such Persons coming into this Our Realm: And if such Justice of the Peace on such Examination, shall find reasonable Cause to suspect such Persons coming to be with design to Disturb Our Government, or that such Person hath had any Correspondence with Our Enemies, he is hereby required to take sufficient Security for such Persons Appearing in Our Court, called the Queens Bench at Westminster, in the then next Term, and in Default thereof, to Commit such Person to the Common Goal of the County or Place where he shall be Apprehended, there to remain till Discharged by Due Course of Law, and thereof immediately to give Notice in Writing to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION.

ANNE R.

WHereas We have been Informed, That notwithstanding the Encouragement given by Our late Royal Brother King William the Third, by His Royal Proclamations Dated the Eighth of January, and Twelfth of February last, for Seamen to Enter themselves on Board His said Majesties Ships of War, divers Seamen and Mariners, for whose Service we have Present Occasion, have lately Left their Usual and Ordinary Places of Abode, and have Removed themselves into Private and Obscure Places in and about Our Cities of London and Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and Parts Adjacent, and elsewhere, Endeavouring thereby to Avoid Our Present Service: We therefore (by the Advice of Our Privy Council) have thought fit to Publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby Streightly Charge and Command all Seamen and Mariners, now being and remaining in any County of England or Wales, and not already Listed, or Entred into Our Service, That they forthwith Render themselves unto the Principal Officers and Commissioners of our Navy in London, or to the Commissioners of the Navy at such Ports and Places that shall be neareſt to the Place where they now are, in Order to their being Received into Pay, and Sent on Board such of Our Ships of War, as shall be found most Expedient for Our Service; And Declare, if any of them shall hereafter be Found out or Discovered to have Neglected to Obey this Our Royal Command, they shall be Proceeded against with all Severity of Law for such their Contempt. And for the Encouragement of all such Seamen, and Able-Bodied Landmen, with greater Alacrity and Chearfulness to Enter themselves in Our Service, and Remain on Board Our Ships of War in Our Royal Navy, We do hereby Promise and Declare, That if any Seaman, or Able-Bodied Landman (other than such who shall Desert any of Our Ships of War, War, in Order to Obtain Our intended Bounty, whom We hereby Direct to be Profecuted for ſuch Deſertion) ſhall on or before the Fifteenth Day of July now next enſuing, Enter himſelf with any Juſtice of the Peace or Vice-Admiral, to Serve Us on Board of Our Ships of War, ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, or Vice-Admiral reſpectively, ſhall give to each Man, ſo Entring, a Certificate, under his Hand and Seal, of his Entry, and the Time of his Entry, and ſhall Limit ſuch a Number of Days in the ſaid Certificate, as may be neceſſary for his Repairing on Board ſome Ship or Tender in our Service (which Certificate ſhall be Granted without any Fee or Reward) and that then alſo all ſuch Seamen and Able-Bodied Landmen who ſhall, within the Time Limited in ſuch Certificate, Repair on Board any of Our ſaid Ships or Tenders, on Producing a Certificate thereof from the Officer of ſuch Ship or Tender, ſhall Have and Receive, as Our Free Gift and Royal Bounty, from Our Principal Officers of the Navy, or ſuch Perſon as they ſhall Appoint, the Sum of Twenty Shillings, before ſuch Ships ſhall Depart to Sea. And to the end We may be Informed what Perſons ſhall ſo Enter themſelves to Serve on Board Our Fleet, in Purſuance of this Our Proclamation, We do hereby Require and Command Our Reſpective Juſtices of the Peace and Vice-Admirals within this Kingdom of England, and Dominion of Wales, to Tranſmit to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, Liſts containing the Chriſtian and Sirnames of each Perſon that ſhall Enter with them, the Time of their Entry, for what Ship, and the Time which ſhall be given to each Perſon to Repair on Board. And We do hereby further Charge and Command all Our Captains, Commanding any of Our Ships of War, to Tranſmit to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, true Accounts in Writing, under their Hands, of the ſeveral Times when the ſaid Men ſhall reſpectively come on Board. And We are alſo Graciouſly Pleaſed to Declare, That Conduct-Money, according to the Practice of the Navy, (over and beſides Our ſaid Bounty-Money) ſhall be allowed to ſuch Seamen and Landmen as ſhall Voluntarily Enter themſelves for Our Sea-ſervice, according to the true Meaning of this Our Royal Proclamation. And We do hereby Require and Command the Lord Mayor of Our City of London, and all Our Juſtices of the Peace, Conſtables, and other Officers of Our Cities of London and Weſtminſter, County of Middleſex, and Borough of Southwark in the County of Surrey, and other the Parts and Places near Adjoining to the ſame, That they do make, or cauſe to be made, diligent Search, within all and every their Precincts and Juriſdictions, for the ſaid Seamen and Mariners, and Seize and Secure, or cauſe to be Seized and Secured, the Perſons of ſuch of them as ſhall be there found (other than ſuch who ſhall have Entred themſelves, as aforeſaid, within the Time Limitted, as aforeſaid, for his or their Repairing on Board Our Ships of War; and other than ſuch as are or ſhall be Protected, as being in Our immediate Service Imployed by the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, Officers of Our Ordnance, Commiſſioners for Victualling Our Fleet, or Our Commiſſioners for Tranſportation) and cauſe them to be ſent and put on Board ſuch of Our Ships or Tenders that ſhall be Appointed to lie in the River of Thames to Receive them, in order to their being Imployed in Our Service; And that they do alſo ſend up to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, a Liſt of the Names of all ſuch Seamen and Mariners as they ſhall Procure for the Service aforeſaid. And the Officer to whom ſuch Seamen or Mariners ſhall be delivered (and whom We hereby Require and Command to Receive none but ſuch as are fit for Our Service) ſhall give Certificates or Receipts in Writing, under their Hands, for ſuch of them as ſhall be ſo delivered in purſuance hereof. And for the Encouragement of all Conſtables, and other Inferior Officers, to be Diligent in the Searching after, Taking and Securing ſuch Able Seamen and Mariners, who ſhall Neglect or Refuſe to Enter themſelves in Our Service, as aforeſaid, We do hereby Promiſe and Declare, That every ſuch Conſtable, or other Inferior Officer, who ſhall Secure and Deliver, or cauſe to be Delivered on Board any of Our ſaid Ships or Tenders in the River of Thames, appointed or to be appointed to Receive them, any ſuch Seamen or Mariners, as aforeſaid, on or before the Fifteenth Day of July now next enſuing, ſhall, upon producing to the Commiſſioners of Our Royal Navy ſuch Certificate or Receipt, as is hereby before required to be given for ſuch Seamen or Mariners as ſhall be ſo Delivered, receive of Our ſaid Commiſſioners, as Our Free Gift and Royal Bounty, in Reward of ſuch their Service, Ten Shillings for every ſuch Seaman and Mariner as ſhall by him be Delivered or cauſed to be Delivered on Board, as aforeſaid; which Reward Our ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby required to pay accordingly. And whereas We are informed, That divers Seamen and Mariners, fit for Our Service at Sea, do procure themſelves to be Choſen into Pariſh-Offices, hoping thereby to Avoid ſuch Our Service, for which they are proper, We do hereby therefore Recommend it to all Our Loving Subjects whatſoever, who are or ſhall be any way concerned in the Electing and Conſtituting of ſuch Officers, that, as far as in them lies, (during this preſent War) they do Forbear and Avoid putting or admitting into ſuch Offices any Seamen or Mariners requiſite and neceſſary for Our Service and the Defence of their Country on Board Our Fleet.

The

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the moſt Illuſtrious and High-born Princeſs ANNE, by the Grace of GOD, Queen of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Preſident, Vice-Preſident, Treaſurer, Court of Aſſiſtance, and Body of the Artillery Company in the City of London.

PErmit us, mighty Queen, to Condole with the reſt of your Faithful Subjects, for the Death of our late moſt Glorious and Heroick Sovereign of Immortal Memory William III. the Deliverer of theſe Nations from impending Slavery and Superſtition, the Reſcuer and Maintainer of the Liberties of Europe, and Protector of the Proteſtant Intereſt in all the Parts of the Earth.

But of all the Obligations he laid upon the People of England, what we muſt ever remember, with the moſt feeling Senſe of Gratitude, is, the Preſerving Your Majeſty from being excluded from the Throne; your Acceſſion to which we Congratulate with the greateſt Sincerity, having not only the moſt Rightful and Lawful Title in the World, but as being likewiſe the worthieſt to ſucceed our deceaſed Monarch, by your unſhaken Adherence to the Church of England, your charitable Diſpoſition to tender Conſciences, your glorious Reſolutions of humbling France, of ſupporting your Allies, maintaining the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and encouraging the peaceable Profeſſions of Arts and Trade in the midſt of tumultuous Wars.

According to the Inſtitution of our Company we promiſe to do our beſt in training your loyal Citizens to the Uſe of Arms, for the Security of your Royal Perſon, Title, and Dignity, and the Preſervation of thoſe Bleſſings ſo much worth fighting for, which Citizens can only enjoy in a free Government, and under ſo Excellent a Prince. And in all Humility we pray, that Your Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to appoint us a Captain-General, which Charge the late King did us the Honour to take upon himſelf, according to the Example of ſome of your Royal Predeceſſors. And on our parts we ſhall never be wanting in Gratitude or Duty, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Cauſe and Perſon, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all Your Majeſty's open or ſecret Enemies whatſoever.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Whitehall, June 24. The Three Poſts that were due from Holland came in late this night, and bring the following Advices:

Hague, Jun 30. N. S. The King of Pruſſia came hither the 23d Inſtant, and was received with the Honours due to his Rank and Dignity. The Earl of Athlone has been here to receive new Inſtructions from the States General, and is ſince returned to his Army, which continues in the ſame Poſts, part of the Foot before Nimeghen, and the reſt with the Horſe along the Rhine; they hourly expect to be joined by 6000 Men of the Forces of Heſſe, and two Regiments of thoſe of Pruſſia; as alſo by Troops of Lunenburgh, which are arrived at Arnheim in Guelderland. The French Garriſon is marched out of Keyſerſwaert, and the French have ſince our taking that Place abandoned Nuys and Zons, which have put themſelves under the Emperor's Protection; The beſt part of the Forces employed in that Siege are marching down the Rhine to join the Earl of Athlone; upon which Count Tallard has rejoined the Duke of Burgundy's Army, which is ſtill in the ſame Camp near Cleves.

Franckfort, June 25. Prince Lewis of Baden decamped the 16th from Langencandel, in order to form the Siege of Landau, and accordingly having poſted his Army about that Place, the Trenches were opened the 19th. The Allies have a ſtrong Body of Horſe near Croon Weiſſemboung to obſerve Marſhal Catinat's Army, which is ſtill encamped near Haguenau.

Venice, June 16. N. S. The Imperial Army under Prince Eugene continues in the ſame Camp near Curtotone; The French Army extends it ſelf in a Line from the Neighbourhood of that Place to Marmirolo; Beſides which the French have a Flying Camp in the Mantuan for the Security of their Convoys, and another Detachment near Viadana. The Germans have received a further Reinforcement, and are under no Apprehenſion of the French; They lately made an Attempt to ſurpriſe the Duke of Vendoſme in his Quarters, which failed of Succeſs, through the Imprudence of one of the Parties employed in that Deſign, who fired upon a Centinel, and alarm'd the Enemy.

Briſtol, June 22. The Little Briſtol, John Ring Maſter, arrived here the 20th Inſtant from Montſerrat. The ſame day came in here the Happy Return Brigantine from Jamaica, having ſpent 7 weeks in her Paſſage: The Maſter reports, that he left the Squadron of Her Majeſty's Ships under the Command of Admiral Bembow at Jamaica; but that he met afterwards with a Sloop which came from thence, and gave an Account, that the ſaid Squadron put to Sea about 6 weeks ago, but does not ſay whither they ſailed.

Cowes, June 22. The Roſe-Tree of Middleburgh, a Caper of 18 Guns, Peter Burrence Commander, came in here yeſterday with a ſmall French Privateer belonging to Breſt, which he took in the Channel; He had before ſent home another Prize, being a French Merchant Ship laden with Wine and Brandy.

Portſmouth, June 23. Rear-Admiral Fairborne and Rear-Admiral Graydon, with one Dutch Flag and 20 Men of War, Engliſh and Dutch, ſailed yeſterday from St. Hellens. Sir George Rooke continues there with Her Majeſty's Fleet. Sir Cloudeſly Shovell is at Spithead, with a ſtrong Squadron of Men of War.

Yeſterday a ſmall French Privateer being chaced in at the Needles, and endeavouring to get out at St. Hellens, was taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Aſſociation.

Beale, June 23. Her Majeſty's Ship the Cheſter and the Merlin Sloop came into the Downes laſt Sunday, having under their Convoy the Mary Galley, Thomas Harriſon Maſter, from Scanderoon; the Penelope, John Bridges Maſter, from the Maderas; the Ruſſell Galley from Leghorn; the Mad Dog, William Jewry Maſter, from Lisbon, and about 11 or 12 other homeward-bound Merchant Ships. This day 8 of Her Majeſty's Ships, and one Bomb-Ketch, ſailed from the Downes to the Weſtward, with divers Victuallers, Store-Ships, Tenders, and Coalers, and two Dutch Tranſport Ships which came thither laſt Sunday with Soldiers from Holland.

St. James's, June 22. This day Count Jorger, who is ſent by the Emperor with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary, to make his Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation to Her Majeſty upon the late King's Death and Her Majeſty's Succeſſion to the Crown, had Publick Audience of Her Majeſty; being introduced by Sir Charles Cottrell Maſter of the Ceremonies.

After which he had Audience of His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark; being introduced in like manner.

His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark has appointed Edward Nicholas Eſq; to be his Treaſurer.

St. James's, June 24. This day the Count de Maffey, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had Publick Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty; being introduced by Sir Charles Cottrell Maſter of the Ceremonies.

After which he had likewiſe his Audience of Leave of His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark.

St. James's, June 24. The Queen has been pleaſed to appoint his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Derby; his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerſet; his Grace the Duke of Northumberland Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey; his Grace the Duke of Bolton Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Dorſet and Southampton; his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Hereford and Worceſter; his Grace the Duke of Bedford Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Bedford, Cambridge and Middleſex; his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle Lord Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham, and of the Eaſt-Riding of the County of York; the Rt.
